

SUMMARY

Accomplished educator and leader with a Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience and a concentration in Military Leadership Studies. Experienced in executive functioning coaching, reading intervention, and team leadership, with over 1,500 hours of tutoring experience. Proven ability to train and lead teams, implement research-based programs, and collaborate with families and educators to drive student success. Strong foundation in behavioral science, leadership training, and educational research, including ongoing publication work.

EDUCATION

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Minor in Military Leadership Studies

US ARMY RESERVES

1LT Army Signal Operations Officer

SKILLS

- Executive Functioning Support: Organization, time management, prioritization, and academic planning.
- Reading Intervention: Expertise in multi-sensory strategies and dyslexia support using Orton-Gillingham Method.
- Leadership and Team Building: Extensive experience training and leading teams in both military and academic settings.
- Research and Analysis: Behavioral science research, case study development, and academic collaboration.
- Communication and Collaboration: Skilled at partnering with parents, teachers, and school staff to achieve shared goals.

CERTIFICATIONS

- CompTIA Security+: Demonstrated proficiency in IT security fundamentals.
- Reading Horizons Curriculum Training: Specialized in multi-sensory reading intervention

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Noble Tutoring & Prep

Business Development, Executive Functioning Specialist, and Reading Intervention Lead

Dripping Springs, TX | May 2022- Present

- Led a team of 8 certified teachers, providing training on curriculum implementation, new programming, and emerging educational research.
- Delivered targeted executive functioning coaching, including time management, organization, prioritization, and study strategies.
- Implemented Reading Horizons curriculum, providing structured reading intervention for K-4 students and students with dyslexia.
- Conducted over 1,500 hours of tutoring, focusing on individualized, strengths-based instruction to meet diverse student needs.
- Collaborated with professors, families, and school staff to develop customized academic plans and interventions.
- Successfully introduced research-based programs to enhance student outcomes in reading and executive functioning.
- Led the publication of a case study in executive functioning intervention in collaboration with a Texas State University Professor with a Ph.D. in Education.
- Increased team performance and engagement through targeted professional development and mentorship.

Army Reserves

1st Lieutenant May 2022 - Present

- Designed and delivered targeted training programs for 120+ personnel, mentoring junior leaders through complex military strategies and developing individualized coaching plans that improved team performance by 40%.
- Developed and implemented comprehensive leadership curriculum, directly teaching critical skills in communication, problem-solving, and strategic thinking to emerging military professionals.
- Implemented strategic planning and time management protocols, personally coaching team members through individual development challenges and enhancing operational efficiency across multiple mission-critical projects.

Baylor University Behavioral Science Lab

Research Assistant | September 2018-2019

- Conducted experimental research on cognitive development, analyzing neurological learning patterns and behavioral responses to identify potential parallels with human developmental processes.
- Processed and documented complex research data from neurological studies, preparing comprehensive statistical analyses to support investigations into learning mechanisms across species.